

Kurt Ellis

Chief Financial Officer

Kurt Ellis joined HealthNet in April 2018 and serves as the organization's Chief Financial Officer. He has more than 15 years of experience in health care management. Kurt oversees HealthNet's financial planning, budgeting, accounting, financial audits, billing, revenue cycle management, accounts receivables, accounts payable, and other key functions.

Before joining HealthNet, he served as Business Development Manager for the Indiana Division of the American Red Cross as well as President of Ellis & Associates, a business development, strategy and operations consulting firm.

Prior to these roles, Ellis worked with the Columbus Regional Health System for 24 years in various leadership positions. He served most recently as Vice President of Health System Operations, managing the $40 million budget and finances of its outpatient operations, including a 100-member physician group.
