

Rick Diaz, MBA

President/CEO

Rick Diaz joined HealthNet in August 2013 and serves as the organization's President/CEO. He has more than 20 years of experience in health care management.

Prior to being named as HealthNet's President/CEO in 2016, Rick served as HealthNet's Chief Operations Officer. He made significant contributions during his three years in this role, bringing a new level of accountability, fiscal responsibility and servant leadership to the organization.

Prior to his work with HealthNet, Rick served for seven years as Vice President of Operations for Southern Illinois Healthcare Foundation, a federally qualified health center providing primary health care, outreach and behavioral health services through its many community health centers in the Southern Illinois area.

Before joining Southern Illinois Healthcare Foundation, Diaz served as the clinic manager/administrator for Warren Clinic, a primary care practice in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Rick also served as a Department Head for an Allied Health Program at Community Care College in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Rick is very involved in health care advocacy and is on numerous regional and national committees concerning patients' rights. Rick also serves on several community boards and is actively involved in the Indianapolis community promoting health care access for all.

A husband and father, Rick has been married to his wife Anna for 20 years and has four wonderful children.

A Marine Corps veteran, Rick has a bachelor's degree in health care administration from American Intercontinental University and a master's degree in business administration from Ashford University.
